

Votes for Women: Right or Wrong?

Woman Suffrage Centennial Forum

“Votes for Women: Right or Wrong?” is a play presenting Arizona’s woman suffrage history and debating the arguments used in 1912 concerning women's right to vote. Presented as part of the Woman Suffrage Centennial Forum by the Arizona Women’s Heritage Trail, it will also include a discussion period. This event is FREE to the public.

Prescott

Friday, March 9, 2012

7 p.m.

Prescott College Crossroads Center
220 Grove Avenue

Thanks to the Arizona Humanities Council and Arizona Public Service for their generous sponsorship of this project.

For more information visit:
www.womensheritagetrail.org
PHONE 480-471-7792
womensheritagetr@aol.com